PURPOSE

Our purpose is to provide university education, carry out scientific and technological research, as well as cultural outreach and technology transfer activities, contributing also to the mission of the Argentine Air Force, in accordance with the aerospace interests of the Nation.

PROGRAMS

We have the School of Engineering and the School of Management Sciences, which offer undergraduate and graduate degrees and an interesting proposal for graduates in master's degrees and specializations.

100% ONLINE PROGRAMS

A distinctive feature of our Institution is our Distance Education Mode that promotes the active protagonism and the generation of knowledge by the student, mediated by information and communication technologies (ICT).

Our teachers and tutors receive continuous and specific training in this learning mode, both methodologically and technologically.

Since the 1990s, IUA began to concentrate a large number of students who chose to learn this way.

INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION

CREATED IN 2001

The International Cooperation Division was created in 2001 with the purpose of strengthening the ties between the IUA and the international academic community.

We provide support and assistance to students, professors and researchers interested in carrying out a study experience in a higher education institution abroad, either in person or virtually.

WHAT WE DO

INTERNATIONAL COOPERATION

OBJECTIVES

Promote the international insertion of CRUC IUA through international academic cooperation agreements

Expand academic cooperation ties for the mobility of students, professors and researchers with foreign higher education institutions

Promote and strengthen the implementation of activities for the internationalization of the curriculum

Participate in the advisory board of Study Cordoba

Provide support and training in Spanish for foreign students

Provide free German and French courses for CRUC IUA students.

SCHOLARSHIPS

Intel Scholarships for Academic Excellence

IUA SPORT

IUA Sport aims to provide the educational community with the opportunity of an integral education, where the care of the body and mind should be a distinctive feature in their training.

Sports, physical activity and recreation provide students with the necessary tools to make the best use of their free time, while at the same time guaranteeing a healthy lifestyle, generating bonds of friendship, belonging, solidarity and team spirit; indispensable skills in today's world.
